Tournament Rules and details

- Every player/parent take part on the tournament for their own responsibility.
- We expect at least 1 parent of the child to be present during the tournament.
- Please wear appropriate clothing/indoor shoes throughout the competition. We cannot take responsibility of any lost items or any damage caused in your belongings by other participants.
- This tournament is for all students of Coach Frank, disregarding their status whether they are members of the Sunrise Badminton Network.
- On the tournament, we will be using Round-robin (where there's less participants) and the Swiss style (where there are more participants) tournaments schemes.
- We are following the general laws of badminton provided by the World Badminton Federation. Please check out the rules online and go through on it with your child. We have created an introductory video available on YouTube: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=_bRBtUmNekk **
- The tournament will be played with Yonex Mavis 2000 synthetic-cork shuttlecocks in the the Primary groups and the Secondary 1 group. The organizer will supply the shuttlecocks for the tournament.
- The Secondary 2 group will play with Lining Feather Shuttlecocks also supplied by the organizer.
- The players will be first grouped by their age and then their abilities, so everyone can have many good games.
- The players will play many matches depending of the size of their groups. No one will go home after 1 match played!!!
- If the number of players are insufficient at an age group it will be merged with a group closest in age and/or abilities.
- Start of event 13:30 prompt, please arrive at least 15 minutes earlier. The venue opens at 13:00.
- Expected end of competition: 15:30 for the Primary age groups and 17:00 for the Secondary age groups. Medal Ceremony straight after the end of age group competitions.
- After the medal ceremony, if there will be some free time everyone can play until closure.
- Coach Frank will create photographs throughout the tournament, please make sure that you clearly sign at your application if you do not want you or your child to be involved in badminton publications on the Network's website.
- We reserve the right to change every aspect of the tournament due to unforeseen circumstances.
